

METLIFE LEGAL PLANS®

SUMMARY PLAN DESCRIPTION

INTRODUCTION

MetLife Legal Plans® was established to provide personal legal services for eligible employees and their spouses and dependent children. This summary provides general information about the plan, who is eligible to receive benefits under the plan, what those benefits are, how to obtain benefits, and what your rights under ERISA are. If you have any questions that are not answered, please contact the benefits department.

MetLife Legal Plans, Inc. has been selected to provide legal plan benefits. The services will be provided through a panel of carefully selected participating law firms. Lawyers in this network are called Plan Attorneys. These arrangements are described in detail in this summary. The actual provisions of the plan are set out in a written document maintained by your employer. All statements made in this booklet are subject to the provisions and terms of that document, which control in the event of conflict with this summary.

HOW TO GET LEGAL SERVICES

Website

When you are ready to use the legal plan, you can create an account using the email and password of your choice on the members' website (members.legalplans.com). Once you've created an account, you will have access to a guided experience to see your coverages and find an attorney, as well as access to our digital estate planning solution to create wills, living wills and powers of attorney.

Client Service Center

You may also use MetLife Legal Plans®, by calling MetLife Legal Plans' Client Service Center at 1-800-821-6400 Monday – Friday 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., Eastern Time. Be prepared to give the last four of your SSN and Zip Code. If you are a spouse or an eligible dependent child of an eligible person, you will need the last four of your SSN and Zip Code of the member through whom you are eligible. The Client Service Representative who answers your call will:

- Verify your eligibility for services;
- Make an initial determination of whether and to what extent your case is covered (the Plan Attorney will make the final determination of coverage);
- Give you a Case Number which is similar to a claim number (you will need a new Case Number for each new case you have);
- Give you the telephone number of the Plan Attorney most convenient to you; and
- Answer any questions you have about the Legal Plan.

You then call the Plan Attorney to schedule an appointment at a time convenient to you. Evening and Saturday appointments are available.

If you choose, you may select a non-Plan Attorney. Also, where there are no participating law firms, you will be asked to select your own attorney. In both of these circumstances, MetLife Legal Plans will reimburse you for these non-Plan Attorneys' fees in accordance with a set fee schedule.

For services to be covered, you or your eligible dependents must have obtained a case number and retained an attorney and the attorney must begin work on the covered legal matter while you are an eligible member of the legal plan.

WHAT SERVICES ARE COVERED

MetLife Legal Plans® entitles you and your eligible dependents to receive certain personal legal services. The available benefits are very comprehensive, but there are limitations and other conditions which must be met. Please take time to read the description of benefits carefully. The covered services are listed in Appendix A. All listed benefits are available to you and your spouse and dependents, unless otherwise noted.

Exclusions

Excluded services are those legal services that are not provided under the plan. No services, not even a consultation, can be provided for:

- Employment-related matters, including company or statutory benefits
- Matters involving your employer, MetLife or its affiliates, or plan attorneys
- Matters in which there is a conflict of interest between the employee and spouse or dependents, in which case services are excluded for the spouse and dependents
- Appeals and class actions
- Farm, business, and investment matters and matters involving property held for investment or rental or issues when the participant is the landlord
- Patent, trademark and copyright matters
- Costs or fines
- Frivolous or unethical matters
- Matters for which an attorney-client relationship exists prior to the participant becoming eligible for plan benefits

ELIGIBILITY

Eligible dependents include your lawful spouse, California registered domestic partner and your child (or children) up to the age of 26.

ENROLLMENT

During your employer's annual enrollment period, you can change or update your benefits selections. You may choose to join or drop out of the plan at that time. If you become an eligible employee after the annual enrollment period, you can elect to participate in the Legal Plan by completing your election form within 30 days of employment. The Plan has a minimum participation period of one year, and you must maintain the coverage for the entire year.

WHEN COVERAGE BEGINS

Generally, Plan coverage becomes effective on the date of the following:

The first day of the month in which your employer has agreed to provide the Plan, typically January 1, for the elections you made during the previous enrollment period; or

If you were hired after an enrollment period, the first day of the month after you submitted a properly completed enrollment form.

WHEN COVERAGE ENDS

Your ability to receive legal services under the plan ends if you are no longer an eligible employee or if you choose not to enroll during future annual enrollment periods.

If you cease to be eligible to participate in the plan or your employment with the company ends, the plan will cover the legal fees for those covered services that were opened and pending during the period you were enrolled in the plan. No new matters may be started after you become ineligible.

AMENDMENT OR TERMINATION

While your employer expects to continue to offer participation in the legal services plan, it reserves the right to amend, or terminate the plan at any time. If the plan is terminated, all covered services then in process will be handled to their conclusion under the terms of the plan.

ADMINISTRATION AND FUNDING

The legal services plan is provided for and administered through a contract with MetLife Legal Plans. MetLife Legal Plans makes all determinations regarding attorneys' fees and what constitutes covered services. All contributions collected from employees electing this coverage are paid to MetLife Legal Plans.

COST OF THE PLAN

You pay the cost of the plan through after-tax payroll deductions, based on your enrollment choice.

PLAN CONFIDENTIALITY, ETHICS AND INDEPENDENT JUDGMENT

Your use of the plan and the legal services provided are confidential. The Plan Attorney will maintain strict confidentiality of the traditional lawyer-client relationship. Your employer will know nothing about your legal issue or the services you use under the plan. Plan administrators will have access only to limited statistical information needed for orderly administration of the plan.

No one will interfere with your Plan Attorney's independent exercise of professional judgment when representing you. All attorneys' services provided under the plan are subject to ethical rules established by the courts for lawyers. The attorney will adhere to the rules of the plan and he or she will not receive any further instructions, direction, or interference from anyone else connected with the Plan. The attorney's obligations are exclusively to you. The attorney's relationship is exclusively with you. MetLife Legal Plans or the law firm providing services under the Plan is responsible for all services provided by the attorneys.

You should understand that the plan has no liability for the conduct of any Plan Attorney. You have the right to file a complaint with the state bar concerning attorney conduct pursuant to the plan. You have the right to retain at your own expense any attorney authorized to practice law in your state.

Plan attorneys will refuse to provide services if a matter is clearly without merit, frivolous, or for the purpose of harassing another person. If you have a complaint about the legal services you have received or the conduct of an attorney, call MetLife Legal Plans at 1-800-821-6400. We will review your complaint and respond within two business days of your call.

OTHER SPECIAL RULES

In addition to the coverages and exclusions listed, there are certain rules for special situations. Please read this section carefully.

What if other coverage is available to you? If you are entitled to receive legal representation provided by another organization such as an insurance company or a government agency or if you are entitled to legal services under any other legal plan, coverage will not be provided under this Plan. However, if you are eligible for legal aid or public defender services, you will still be eligible for benefits under this plan so long as you meet the eligibility requirements.

What if you are involved in a legal dispute with your dependents? You may need legal help with a problem involving your spouse or your children. In some cases, both you and your child may need an attorney. If it would be improper for one attorney to represent both you and your dependent, only you will be entitled to representation under the plan. In these situations, your dependent will not be covered under the plan.

What if you are involved in a legal dispute with another employee? If you or your dependents are involved in a dispute with another eligible employee or that employee's dependents, MetLife Legal Plans will arrange for legal representation with independent and separate counsel for both parties.

What if the court awards attorneys' fees as part of a settlement? If you are awarded attorneys' fees as a part of a court settlement, the plan must be repaid from this award to the extent that it paid the fee for your attorney.

DENIAL OF BENEFITS AND APPEAL PROCEDURES

Denials of Eligibility

MetLife Legal Plans verifies eligibility using information provided by San Diego and Imperial County Schools. When you call for services, you will be advised if you are ineligible and MetLife Legal Plans will contact San Diego and Imperial County Schools for assistance. If you are not satisfied with the final determination of eligibility, you have the right to a formal review and appeal. Send a letter within 60 days explaining why you believe you are eligible to:

San Diego and Imperial County Schools
6401 Linda Vista road, Suite 505
San Diego, CA 92111-7399

Within 30 days, you will be provided with a written explanation.

Denials of Coverage

If you are denied coverage by MetLife Legal Plans or by any Plan Attorney, you may appeal by sending a letter to:

MetLife Legal Plans, Inc.
Director of Administration
1111 Superior Avenue
Suite 800
Cleveland, Ohio 44114-2507

The Director will issue MetLife Legal Plans' final determination within 60 days of receiving your letter. This determination will include the reasons for the denial with reference to the specific plan provisions on which the denial is based, a description of any additional information that might cause MetLife Legal Plans to reconsider the decision, an explanation of the review procedure, and notice of the right to bring a civil action under Section 502(a) of ERISA.

YOUR ERISA RIGHTS

Congress enacted the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA") to safeguard your interests and those of your beneficiaries under your employee benefit plan. As a participant in the plan, you are entitled to certain rights and protections under the ERISA. ERISA provides that all plan participants shall be entitled to:

- Examine without charge at the plan administrator's office and at other specified locations all Plan documents, including collective bargaining agreements and copies of all documents filed by the plan with U.S. Department of Labor, such as detailed annual reports and plan descriptions;
- Obtain copies of all plan documents and other plan information upon written request to the plan administrator. The administrator may make a reasonable charge for the copies;
- Receive a summary of the Plan's annual financial report from the plan administrator, who is required by law to furnish this to you.

In addition to creating rights for plan participants, ERISA imposes duties upon the people who are responsible for the operation of the employee benefit plan. The people who operate your plan, called "fiduciaries" of the plan, have a duty to do so prudently and in the interest of you and other plan participants and beneficiaries. No one, including your employer or any other person, may fire you or otherwise discriminate against you in any way to prevent you from obtaining a welfare benefit or exercising your rights under ERISA. If your claim for a welfare benefit is denied in whole or in part, you must receive a written explanation of the reason for the denial. You have the right to have the plan review and reconsider your claim. Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce these rights. If you request materials from the plan and do not receive them within 30 days, you may file suit in a federal court. If you do, the court may require the plan administrator to provide the materials and pay you up to $110 a day until you receive the materials, unless the materials were not sent because of reasons beyond the control of the administrator. If you have a claim for benefits which is denied or ignored in whole or in part, you may file suit in a state or federal court. If plan fiduciaries misuse the Plan's money or if you are discriminated against for asserting your rights, you may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor or you may file suit in a federal court. The court will decide who should pay court costs and legal fees. If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees, if for example it finds your claim is frivolous. If you have any questions about your plan, you should contact the plan administrator. If you have any questions about this statement or about your rights under ERISA, you should contact the nearest area office of the Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor listed in your telephone directory, or at 200 Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC. 20210. You can also call the publications hotline of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.
